

A BIBLIOGRAPHY FOR TESTING AND EVALUATION

Elena GATIU*

The following bibliographical list contains a number of works (books and articles) that have been published since 1990, reflecting the way in which testing and evaluation are seen in the field of linguistic and pedagogical research. This selection from the specialist literature on the subject is meant to help those who want to focus on certain theoretical issues in more detail, or find practical suggestions for developing and improving language tests. All the titles listed are available at the British Council Teachers' Resource Centre.
